

AN INTER- DISCIPLINARY NATIONAL CONFERENCE ON PROFESSIONAL ETHICS: THEORY AND PRACTICE

21 & 22 JANUARY, 2020

MATA SUNDRI COLLEGE FOR WOMEN, NEW DELHI

Department of Philosophy organised an Inter- disciplinary National Conference on Professional Ethics: Theory and Practice in the College from 21 to 22/1/2020.

It was attended by large number of students and faculties. Dr. Harpreet Kaur, Principal, welcomed the guests. College's Chief Patron Padma Shree S. Vikram Jit Singh Sahney and Chief Guest Prof. (Dr.) Bhushan Patwardhan, Vice Chairman, University Grants Commission, New Delhi were present at the inauguration. Ernest RWAMUCYO, High Commissioner, Rwanda represented by Shri Joseph Kabakeza, First Counsellor was the Guest of Honour.

Highlights of the Conference were submission and presentation of research abstracts and papers by scholars and faculties. Successful professionals from education, research, corporate, legal, medical, army, media and sports shared their views and experiences.

Conference was sponsored by Indian Council of Philosophical Research, New Delhi and concluded with the Valedictory address delivered by Air Marshal (Retd.) Jagjeet Singh PVSM VSM and Vote of Thanks proposed by Dr. Lakshmi Vatsa, Teacher In- charge, Department of Philosophy and Conference Convener.