MATA SUNDRI COLLEGE FOR WOMEN
UNIVERSITY OF DELHI

About Mata Sundri Ji

Mata Sundri college for women , named after Mata Sundri ji . The consort of the tenth Guru , GURU GOBIND SINGH JI , was established to propagate the cherished ideals of service , leadership , social responsibility and academic pursuits among young woman with the motto.

Truth is the highest of all virtues but true living is higher still. Mata Sundri college for women is an Institution where we strive to achieve excellence in higher education and woman empowerment . A constituent college of the university of Delhi , The college was founded on 17th July , 1967 by the Gurudwara prabhandak committee , Delhi state .

Non-Collegiate Women's Education Board

In 1943, by a Delhi University act, Non-Collegiate Women's Education Board was established, where in women students were enabled to take some of the examination of the University with special coaching but without attending regular classes. This gave shape to the Non-Collegiate Women's Education Board (NCWEB).

The Board began functioning in September, 1944 with 3 students. At present, the enrolment is more than 24,000. Only women students residing in the National capital Territory of Delhi can enroll themselves as students of the Board. NCWEB is a unique system with lectures on Sunday and academic breaks leaving students with six working days to follow their dream. In this neo-age of 100% cut-offs, class room crunch, gender discrimination, NCWEB is a welcome arrangement and a most satisfactory way to attain a degree from University of Delhi.

Warm Greetings from the Principal, Mata Sundri College for Women.

Mata Sundri College for Women (MSC) is named after Mata Sundri Ji, an able leader of Khalsa and the consort of Guru Gobind Singh ji. She was the first transformational leader of the Sikhs who donned the leadership role in times of turmoil to guide the Khalsa. In the present times, it is imperative to equip young women with information, requisite skills, and training so that they may excel in the fields they choose and also lead empowered lives. Our objective at MSC is to shape leaders who can steer change and take up personal and professional challenges with ease. We believe in creating an academic environment geared towards excellence through a dialogic process, creating an enabling environment for teaching-learning, and promoting a culture of critical thinking. The faculty and support staff of MSC foster an inclusive environment that is culturally sensitive, promotes diversity and endorses humanism.

As the Principal of the college, I seek to foster multi-stakeholder partnerships and also have a sustained engagement with them. The main stakeholders of institutions of higher learning are the students—who are in their formative years. I aim to create a conducive environment for them so that they are emboldened to embark on their new journey with confidence, competence and caliber and be successful in the present times marked by unprecedented changes. I welcome all the students entering into the portals of the college to be a part of the invigorating and energizing experience offered here. Here, they have the opportunities to develop their innate capabilities under the guidance and mentoring of proficient faculty and dedicated support staff.

Message from Principal...

As Nelson Mandela has quoted, "Education is the most powerful weapon which you can use to change the world," the e-magazine 'Aparajita', 2020 published by Non-Collegiate Women's Education Board truly justifies the power of writing. The magazine is, in true sense, a treasure of empowering thoughts and ideas.

In words of Saul Bass, "Interesting things happen when the creative impulse is cultivated with curiosity, freedom, and intensity," the e-magazine 'Aparajita' has, indeed given both students and teachers freedom to strongly showcase their ideas and creativity. I appreciate the efforts of the staff and students in shaping their ideas in the form of poems, articles, quotations and art. I also appreciate the contribution made by teachers in encouraging their students to write.

Lastly, I congratulate all the students, teachers, staff and Teacher-in-Charge of Mata Sundri College, for contributing in publication of the E-magazine 'Aparajita'. I wish all of them success and a bright future.

Message from Convener...

In the E-magazine 'Aparajita'-2020 all the students and teachers have tried to present their sincere and enthusiastic expressions. 'Aparajita'-2020 contains beautiful write-ups and poems covering diverse areas and topics. I am sure its reading would be enjoyable. I wish to express my heartfelt gratitude to the TIC of the centre, Dr. Sarabjit Kaur Srna for her unstinting support. I would also like to thank deputy coordinator of the centre Dr. Indu Kumari for her help and encouragement.

As a convener, I take this opportunity to thank my Editorial team and all those who worked tirelessly for the successful issue of the E-magazine. Special thanks to the chief editor Mr. Subodh Chandra Bharti. Without his admirable help, cooperation and commendable hard work, it might not have been possible to bring out this edition. He put his best efforts in facilitating the pictorial and readable articles for the E-magazine. I also thank Ms. Kritika and Ms. Sakshi for their cooperation and suggestions. I feel immense pleasure for everyone's continuing support in these difficult times as we have succeeded in our mission and now launch our E-magazine 'Aparajita'.

It is heartening to note that the magazine has become more popular amongst the students and has inspired them to display their talents in the multifarious activities of the college. The E-magazine is a meaningful way of encouraging the reading and writing habits of the students. In this regard, 'Aparajita' has opened up new vistas and has given them a platform to express their prolific original thoughts and ideas.

Lastly, I would like to say-stay safe, stay healthy and look after your loved ones.
